

Training at Mavrovo

Training on topic Communication and conflict resolution in developing multiethnic approach in public relations was delivered by two experts – Pavlina Jankulovska and Mimoza Bogdanovska-Jovanovska for the region of Skopje. It was realized on 23rd and 24th May, 2008. The training contained topics such as verbal and non-verbal communication, perceptions and prejudices, violence, resolution of conflicts, mediation, national identity, diversity and approaches to public relations.

The partner organization „Common Values” organized the training for 35 representatives from NGOs and 9 representatives from LGs and public institutions from Skopje and Tetovo. Participants took an active part in the sessions, showed creativity and good will to learn. Journalists from the Bosnak programme of the National TV attended the training and made interviews with trainers, participants and project manager Suncica Kostovska Petrovska. Interviews were broadcasted on their regular program SEHARA on 30th May, 2008.
