

Training at Prilep

Training on topic Communication and conflict resolution in developing multiethnic approach in public relations was delivered by two experts – Pavlina Jankulovska and Mimoza Bogdanovska-Jovanovska for the region of Negotino. It was realized from 8th to 10th May, 2008. The training contained topics such as verbal and non-verbal communication, perceptions and prejudices, violence, resolution of conflicts, mediation, national identity, diversity and approaches to public relations.

On this training, organized by NGOSCs Negotino and Prilep, a total of 22 representatives from LG, public institutions and NGOs from Negotino, Kavadarci and Prilep participated. The trainers maintained an interesting approach to the training. The participants participated actively in the sessions and showed creativity. The evaluation lists for the training came out very positive again.
