

Training at Stip

Training on topic Communication and conflict resolution in developing multiethnic approach in public relations was delivered by two experts – Pavlina Jankulovska and Mimoza Bogdanovska-Jovanovska for the region of Stip. It was realized on 4th and 5th April, 2008. The training contained topics such as verbal and non-verbal communication, perceptions and prejudices, violence, resolution of conflicts, mediation, national identity, diversity and approaches to public relations.

On this training, organized by NGOSC Stip, a total of 17 representatives from LG, institutions and NGOs from Stip, Probistip, Kratovo, Kriva Palanka and Kumanovo participated. The participants adapted to the topic quickly and participated actively in the performance of the exercises, such as playing roles in conflict resolutions. The training was guided with enough theoretic part through shortly and easy-to-remember information that was contained in the manual.
