

Training at Vinica

Training on topic Communication and conflict resolution in developing multiethnic approach in public relations was delivered by two experts – Pavlina Jankulovska and Mimoza Bogdanovska-Jovanovska for the region of Delcevo. It was realized on 14th and 15th March, 2008. The training contained topics such as verbal and non-verbal communication, perceptions and prejudices, violence, resolution of conflicts, mediation, national identity, diversity and approaches to public relations.

NGOSC Delcevo organized this two-days training for 20 representatives from LG, public institutions and NGOs from Delcevo, Pehcevo, Makedonska Kamenica and Kocani. The trainers showed an interesting approach to the training and created a pleasant working environment. The participants actively participated in the sessions and showed creativity in fulfilling their tasks. The evaluation lists for the training came out very positive.
