

Training at Strumica

Training on topic Decentralization and governing multiethnic communities was delivered by two experts – Zidas Daskalovski and Marija Risteska for Gevgelija region. It was realized on 8th and 9th May, 2008. The training contained topics such as decentralization process in Macedonia, governing multiethnic communities in theory and practice, power sharing, problems with power sharing on local level, different concepts of governing multiethnic communities in Macedonia and on local level.

23 representatives of NGOs, LG and public institutions from Gevgelija, Valandovo, Dojran, Strumica and Radovis participated in this training organized by NGOSC Gevgelija and Strumica. The training was realized according to the planned agenda. The trainers were professionals for this topic and the participants gained a lot of information and knowledge. The topic was complex with a lot of theory; nevertheless some exercises (case studies), which contributed to long discussions, were realized. The participants took actively part and were very satisfied from the training.
