

Training at Struga

Training on the topic Building partnership and networking was delivered by two experts – Mario Veljkovic and Fatmir Saracini for the region of Resen. The training contained topics such as partnership, introduction and analysis of possible partners (NGO, Municipality, and institutions), networking and coalition building, decision making, administration and public relations of networks/coalition, action plan for networks/coalition, partnerships for lobbying and advocacy, building partnership with media.

28 representatives from NGOs, LGs and public institutions from Resen, Bitola and Ohrid participated in this training, organized from 14th to 16th November, 2008 in Struga. The atmosphere on the training was pleasant and constructive. Exercises for building partnership and for realizing networking activities according to the multiethnic communities in this region were made. The participants were active and satisfied from the training. The evaluation lists for the training were very positive.
