

Training at Struga

Training on the topic Mechanisms and instruments for creation of public policies and advocacy for minority rights was delivered by Vesa Skortova and Lidija Ilievska from NGO Akcija Združenska for Resen region. The training aimed participants to acquire knowledge about mechanisms and instruments for creation of public policies, as well as to receive and upgrade skills for advocating for minorities rights. It was realized from September 5th to September 7th, 2008.

25 representatives of NGOs, LG and public institutions from Resen, Bitola and Struga participated in this training. Trainers responded to participants' expectations. The training was realized according to the planned agenda with various working methods (work in groups, presentations and discussions on the topic). The participants participated actively in the sessions and discussions and showed creativity in working groups. The evaluation lists for the training came out very positive.
